Decoration Day.

THURSDAY, MAY 30, 1878.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE,

HARRISBURG PA.

John F. Hartranft Post,

No. 58, G. A. R.

ORDERS.

At 10 o'clock A. M., the detail made for the purpose will proceed from the Camp, in College Block, to the Catholic Cemetery, and observe the ceremony of Decoration.

Members of the Post will assemble at their Camp at one o'clock P. M., sharp.

All honorably discharged Soldiers, Sailors, and Marines, not members of any Post, are cordially invited to join with the Post on this occasion, at the hour above named.

After the ceremonies at the Opera House, the members of the Post and invited guests will form a procession outside of the building, right resting on Third Street. An invitation is extended to all of the audience in the hope that they may accompany the Post to the Cemetery.

Marshals of the different organizations participating will report in person to Dr. H. B. BUEHLER, Chief Marshal, at the Post Head-Quarters, at half-past one o'clock, sharp.

LANE S. HART, PRINTER

"Oh, let us keep their memories green,
  Those brave ones good and true,
Who in the fight for freedom gave
  Their lives for me and you!
Yes, keep their memories green fore'er,
  And let our voices rise
On wings of gratitude and love,
  To hymn them to the skies."—Boyle.
